THE WASHINGTON POST FAKE.

A Denial That North Carolinians Are Not Patriotic.

Col. Olds writes the Charlotte Observer as follows:

The Washington Post having published a statement that North Carolina was failing to raise regiments and that there were desertions, Adjutant General Cowles sent the following to that paper to appear tomorrow.

"In explanation of the delay in organizing the second regiment I will say that it was done for reasons of policy and for the comfort of the troops and not from a lack of prompt and patriotic response of the brave people of the Old North State, as will fully appear from the following official request of Lieut. Marshall, U.S.A., dated May 4th: 'I have the honor to request that Company B, first regiment, Capt.
Bain, be directed to proceed to Camp Grimes at the earliest possible moment in order to complete the regiment. Company B should be directed to bring blankets for temporary use. No other troops should be ordered here in my opinion until the quartermaster's supplies requisitioned for arrive at Raleigh.' The supplies referred to were principally blankets and tents. The tents did not arrive until May 16th.
The first regiment has been using state tents. Both regiments are now complete, the last company of the second arriving Monday. I have enough volunteer companies tendered to fill another regiment."

SPANISH FLEET AT SANTIAGO

Landed Arms and Provisions For General Blanco.

SAMPSON LEAVES TO MEET THEM

France and Germany Our Enemies—Alliance Between England and America—To Join Sampson.

By Cable THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, May 19, (10 a. m.)—The report last night that the fleet under Cervera had arrived at Santiago de Cuba is reiterated this morning. The only change in the earlier report is that the American ships found there were small cruisers or gunboats. They retired on the approach of the Spaniards. The statement is also reaffirmed that the Queen Regent cabled congratulations to the Spanish admiral.

CERVERA LANDS SUPPLIES.

Madrid, May 20, 11 (a. m.)—It is stated that Admiral Cervera landed an enormous quantity of supplies and arms for General Blanco at Cienfuegos. The Spanish fleet has been ordered to proceed to Havana immediately and raise the blockade of that place.

SQUADRON AT SANTIAGO.

Madrid, May 20—The Cape Verde fleet, under Admiral Cervera, has arrived at Santiago de Cuba without having met with any accident.

OREGON TO JOIN SAMPSON.

Washington, May 20—The Oregon, Marietta and the Buffalo, formerly the Nichero, have been joined by the auxiliary cruiser Harvard off St. Pierre, Martinique. The four vessels are now heading for windward passage and will connect with the fleet of Rear Admiral Sampson. Coal ships have been ordered to Windward passage to join Sampson's fleet. A battle is expected momentarily. The steamer Scalenda has been chartered by the government to take more troops to the Philippines.

BATTLE HOURLY EXPECTED.

Key West, May 20—It is reported that the Cape Verde fleet is off the south coast of Cuba making for Cienfuegos from Santiago de Cuba and a big naval battle is hourly expected.

HURRY ORDERS.

New York, May 20th.—Orders were received here to coal the Columbia with all possible speed preparatory to her sailing. It is believed that she has been ordered to join Sampson's squadron.

RIGID PRESS CENSORSHIP.

Key West, May 20—The pilot boat Glance collided with the patrol boat Sarasata last night and as a result the Sarasata sank.

It is believed that Major General Shafter will this afternoon release the boy Garcia who was arrested on the suspicion that he is a Spanish spy.
Garcia arrived in Tampa eighteen years ago. Prominent officials corroborate his statement of his innocence.

Correspondents of newspapers have received notification that in the future dispatches before they will be allowed to be sent must meet with the approval of Lieutenant Miley, a member of General Shafter's staff. This rigid censorship of press dispatches will continue until after the United States has succeeded in taking Cuba.

On the tent used by the correspondents of the New York Evening Post was raised a Spanish flag. The soldiers were enraged and swooped down on the tent and demolished and burned it.
Their action is universally commended and the three hundred soldiers concerned will never receive any punishment.

THREE HUNDRED KILLED.

Key West, May 20—Three hundred Spaniards are known to have been killed in the fight at Cienfuegos between the American gunboats and the shore batteries. It is also claimed that several hundred were seriously wounded. The American loss was two killed and eight wounded.

ALLIANCE FORMED.

Washington, May 20—It is stated in official circles that a complete understanding has been reached between American and England and that a tacit offensive and defensive alliance has been formed.

SAMPSON TO MEET CERVERA.

Key West, May 20—Aboard all of the vessels there is evidence of greatest activity in the preparations necessary for the ships to put to sea. It is expected that Rear Admiral Sampson will this afternoon sail to meet Admiral Carverra, commander of the Cape Verde fleet, whose arrival at Santiago de Cuba has heated the blood of the navy officers and men to boiling point.
The sailors of the cruiser New York insist on returning the bell presented to them by the seventh regiment of New York.

RESERVES FOR SCHLEY.
Providence, R. I., May 20—It is reported that the Rhode Island naval reserves have just been ordered out and that will be sent to join Schley's squadron at once.

WORKING ON THE CHARLESTON.

Mare Island Navy Yard, Cal., May 20—Machinists are working furiously to repair the condenser of the cruiser Charleston.

MUSTERING IN TROOPS.

Camp Black, Hemstead Plains, New York, May 20—Troops A and C of the New York volunteers were mustered into service of the United States today.

LEAVES TONIGHT.

Washington, May 20—Final orders have been issued to the commander of the expedition to the Philippines, Major General Wesley Merritt and he leaves Washington tonight. It is supposed that his orders provide that he shall remain at Tampa until the second detachment, including the 5,000 regulars, of the Manila forces are in readiness to embark when he will proceed to San Francisco to join them.

A GLORIOUS DAY.

Charlotte Plays the Host to a Host of Visitors.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Charlotte, May 20—Today is a glorious day in Charlotte. From far and near the veterans, the boys, the women and the maidens have assembled to celebrate the event which was the first step to American freedom and liberty.
The city is full of people and bright, floating colors.

Hon. Adlai Stevenson, ex-president of the United States, and Governor Atkinson, of Georgia, are among the distinguished visitors.

The address by Mr. Stevenson was greatly enjoyed by all who could get near enough to hear him. The streets, sidewalks, in fact all ground space as far as you can see in Charlotte is a perfect sea of humanity.

This afternoon the bicycle races are taking place at the park and tonight there will be a special reunion meeting of all comrades at the court house at 8:30 o'clock. Addresses will be made by prominent comrades.

Red Buck and his glossy brown whiskers are in evidence. He is every inch the hustler at home that he is on the road.

PARIS EXPOSITION.

America Will Have Nothing to Do With It.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, May 20—Robineau, the Washington correspondent of the Paris Temps and Matin, attests that Frenchmen, except the holders of Spanish bonds, are friendly to the Americans. Robineau has discovered that the hostility of France to the United States has seriously menaced the success of the exposition to be held in Paris in 1900. A French firm wrote to a prominent Cincinnati house in regard to the exposition and to their letter received the following reply from the Cincinnatians:

"As France has shown herself so decidedly unfriendly to America since the beginning of hostilities with Spain, we decline to have anything whatever to do with you or your exposition."

GOMEZ MARCHES ON HAVANA

Garcia Surrounds Calixta Cutting Off Supplies.

MERRITT GETS FINAL ORDERS.

Forces Embarking at Barcelona For Philippines—Secretary Alger Announces Brigadier Generals.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Port au Prince, Hayti, May 20—Gen.
Gomez is marching on Havana with a force of 15,000 insurgents. The advance guard is under the command of the noted negro chief Quintin Bandera.
While on the march Quintin's force met and routed eight hundred Spaniards. Santiago is wildly excited over the news.

GARCIA MENACES CALIXTO.

Calixto, May 20—The insurgent General Garcia is menacing the town with five thousand men, cutting off all sources of supplies. It is reported here that the Spanish warships have been sighted off Yucatan conveying three large transports laden with troops.

RUSHING TO MANILA.

Washington, May 20—It is announced that four transports will leave San Francisco tomorrow or Sunday having on board eight thousand troops to reinforce Dewey at the Philippines.
The Charleston and City of Pekin will probably not wait as no danger is expected from Spanish ships.

General Merritt was in conference with the officials of the army department at an early hour this morning preparatory to going to the Philippines.

BARCELONA VS. SAN FRANCISCO.

Barcelona, May 20—A large force of soldiers are embarking here and it is asserted will go to the Philippines under convey of the squadron now fitting out at Cadiz.

FRANCE AT SANTIAGO.

Havana, May 20—The French cruiser Fulton has arrived at Santiago de Cuba.

SIXTY-FIFTH ARRIVES.

Camp Alger, May 20—The sixty-fifth regiment of New York arrived at noon today.

STILL AT CADIZ.

Gibraltar, May 20—The second Spanish fleet, which it has been claimed was formed for the purpose of sending them to the Philippines, has not yet sailed from Cadiz.

FRANCE AND GERMANY OUR ENEMIES.

Washington, May 20—It is announced on authority that is usually reliable that President McKinley now regards both France and Germany as enemies of the United States. The president is making preparations and will be in a position to act in the event these two nations show their true sentiments. It is said that Mc-Kinley has in his possession conclusive evidence that both countries are aiding Spain. It has been charged that Germany has supplied the Spanish at Cadiz with guns and ammunition and has sent a number of gunners to the fleet. France, it will be remembered, allowed the Cape Verde fleet too much coal at Martinique in direct violation of her neutrality proclamation.

A BRILLIANT MUSICAL.

A Delighted Audience at Guilford Last Night.

Correspondence Telegram.

Guilford College, May 19th.

THE POPULIST PROPOSITION.

The attention of those of the brethren who favor fusion is respectfully called to the following populist resolution:

Resolved, That this convention elect a conference committee, which shall be authorized to confer with any party or faction of a party which declares its endorsement of the above principles, and purposes and which favors co-operation with the populist party, to carry the same into effect upon such basis as will maintain intact the integrity of the people's party, and as will preserve to it not less than its present representation in both state and national affairs.

If the animus of that resolution is principle not pie we shall be pleased to have that fact demonstrated. The fact is made clear and emphasized that any pie which may have fallen to populists in the deal with republicans is to be assured to them for all time to come. The salaries of offices are to become a sort of populist pension, a kind of guaranteed annuity to the successive generations of populist patriots. Mr. Marion Butler is, of course to remain senator. He has, with Butlersque modesty, declared that he is very well pleased with the senatorship and does not wish for a cabinet position. All congress districts, also, now represented by populist statesmen are to be assured that they shall in nowise be deprived of that priceless boon in future. If the democratic party swallows the nauseous morsel cooked up for it by the precious lot of pot-house politicians calling themselves the populist convention then we are much mistaken as to its temper and appetite. To agree to such an arrangement is to place the party in a position where it must either forswear itself or become a party to the perpetuation of ignorance and infamy in public affairs. To do either is to hurry the party to certain and merited destruction. Democracy will hardly deprive itself of the pleasure of making an end of Mr. Marion Butler's senatorial career, when his present term expires, in order to elect a few members to the legislature this fall.

If the Washington report that troops are deserting from the North Carolina regiments be true then our Raleigh contemporaries have been remiss in their duties by not informing the public; if the report be untrue then it should be speedily corrected.

WILLIAM EWART GLADSTONE.

The passing of Gladstone, despite the exciting times in which we find ourselves, is a matter of universal notice and as nearly a matter of universal sorrow as the death of one man may be. For us of this generation it is perhaps true that "we shall not look upon his like again." The only living statesman to whom he is comparable is Bismarck—and their only common quality is greatness. They represented almost diametrically opposite political principles: Gladstone was a liberal; Bismarck an iron conservative. No man has lived through a period richer in true history, a witness to wider circles of expansion. It is impossible to escape a comparison of the England of today with the England of 1832, when Gladstone began his public career. What a precious experience to have been an appreciative spectator of all that has come to pass in the last two-thirds of a century! Gladstone was more than a spectator—he was intimately associated with the growth of England's present magnificent imperialism; an imperialism beside which even that of Rome pales; an imperialism that has blessed rather than cursed; and yet one which has won for England the hate of all her rivals.

Most great men have been singly great. They have been great poets, statesmen, generals—nothing beyond. Writing in 1839 Macaulay finished a criticism of Gladstone's "Church and State" with this sentence, which was a prophecy as well as a wish: We dissent from his opinions but we admire his talents; we respect his integrity and benevolence; and we hope that he will not suffer political avocations so entirely to engross him as to leave him no leisure for literature and philosophy." His integrity and benevolence remained with him to the end—the former absolute always, the latter growing with his growing years. Through all the strenuous strife of politics he kept within him a clean and wholesome heart. In all his greatness there was nothing sordid. Macaulay had his wish: Gladstone never neglected literature and philosophy. He was equally at home with Homer or a politician. His duties as the controlling spirit of a world empire, all the biting worry of multifarious affairs of state, left him yet with heart and time to grasp "the glory of the sum of things." One hour he fashioned in the fierce heat of parliamentary debate policies effecting three hundred million souls and the next sat calmly down in his study to discuss, with the lucidness of a master at Cambridge or Oxford, the niceties of Grecian prosody. Exquisite culture and colossal strength were his. He was at once a man of letters and a man of affairs, an able author and a far-seeing statesman. And yet the best thing in all Gladstone's career, we are told by those who knew him personally, was Gladstone the man; his greatest blessing to the world the heritage of his example.

If England is really friendly to this country she should keep those Halifax liars from seeing Spanish warships off the Canadian coast.

It will be noted that the terrible Terror was busily occupied in coaling when the Harvard left Martinique.

Historical and Clerical.

The London Journal of Education publishes the following schoolboy answers, which are guaranteed genuine. To the question, "What do you know of Lord Wolsey?" the answer was given: "He was a minister of Henry VIII, who exclaimed, 'If I had served my God as I have served my king, I should not have been beheaded!'" The confusion between Wolsey and Wolsey is perhaps not remarkable, but a post mortem speech of this kind deserves notice. A better story, however, is of a definition of "tithes" which will be of special interest to the church and stage guild—"things worn by ladies in circuses and pantomimes."

Tired.

"The children wish me to ask you to tell them some fairy stories," said the politician's wife.

"My dear," was the reply, "I can't do it. I have been talking to a great many voters today. I must have some relaxation from the routine of business."—Washington Star.

The Way It Struck Her.

He referred in the casual way that is characteristic of members of his profession to an operation at his hospital that day in which a man's rib had been removed. "And why did they do it," said the sweet girl. "Are there not enough women in the world as it is?"—New York Sun.

Borrowing Trouble.

He—I suppose you would scream and wake up everybody in the house if I were to kiss you.

She—Why is it that some folks can't help borrowing trouble?—Chicago News.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Ordered to Remain at Cadiz.

Madrid, May 17, 11 p. m.—An official dispatch from San Juan de Porto Rico received, says that no war ships arrived there yesterday, or today. Rear Admiral Camara, who is in command of the Spanish reserves squadron at Cadiz and who has been ordered to come to Madrid, to consult with the Ministry of Marine, as to his naval plans, has received counter orders, instructing him to remain at Cadiz.

Editor Henry Robbins, of the Mexico, Mo., Tribune, who has suspended the publication of his paper in order to enlist, says in his final issue: "We have hoped and hustled, and hustled and hoped; but, frankly, there is little ground for hope and consequently little ground for further hustling. A republican paper can be 'got out' here, probably, but not one of the Tribune standard. The editor leaves today for the army."

General News in a Nutshell.

Miss Jessie Benton Fremont, widow of "the Pathfinder," the first presidential candidate of the republican party, and daughter of Thomas H. Benton, is passing her old age at Los Angeles in a home given her by the women of California.

After a tribute to Mr. Gladstone's long life and service in a recent issue of the Paris Temps M. Jules Claretie recalls the prophecy of a coming European war once made by the "Grand Old Man": "The century is old, very old, like myself; but I tremble at the thought that we may both see another war before we die."

Representative Boutelle, of Illinois, says that this is the time to acknowledge the nation's gratitude to her foreign-born citizens, inasmuch as the regular army is made up of 25 per cent. of foreigners, while in the navy 52 per cent. of the petty officers and 42 per cent. of the seamen are foreign born. Forty per cent. of those who went down with the Maine were of this class.

Queen Victoria has sent a handsome baton to M. Miguel, bandmaster of the first marine regiment. The musicians, who played several times before her during her stay in Cherbourg, received gratuities. The leader's new baton is surmounted by the royal crown in gold, incrustated with pearls, rubies and emeralds. Underneath is a gold ring on which are inscribed the letters "V. R. I." in blue enamel.

Danbury, N. H., celebrated the one hundredth birthday of Eleazer Smith, the State's only survivor of the war of 1812, on Monday last. Public exercises were held in the town hall, and the honored centenarian drummed on the drum used by him in the war referred to. Eleazer, who is a native of Grafton, N. H., enlisted on October 5, 1814.

Thomas J. Shiprock, Grand Master of Masons of the state of Maryland, has been selected to lay the cornerstone of the monument at Frederick to Francis Scott Key, author of "The Star Spangled Banner." This event will take place on Flag day, June 14.

TALK OF PEACE IN FRANCE.

A Scheme of Mediation Being Formulated.
London, May 19.—A Paris dispatch says: "Negotiations are now in progress with a view to peace. I learned on good authority that Spain would make peace if she can retain Porto Rico and the Philippines, or possibly only the Philippines.

"M. Hanotaux is preparing a way to mediation. Austria is also working in this direction, and it is likely that the suggested terms will take definite form within a few days.
"I hear that Spanish ships, which have been fitted out by Krupp with arms, still lack many essentials and cannot under any circumstances put to sea within a week."

List Your City Taxes.

Notice is hereby given that I will North Elm street, during the month of June for the purpose of listing taxes.

Those persons not listing their taxes, will be liable to a double tax and an indictment for said failure.

City Clerk.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for consumption, coughs and colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug you suffer? It isn't necessary. "Don't loss of the other." Don't feel "weak" and "worn out." Impure blood is at the bottom of all your trouble.

So Tired! So Tired!

Chronic Dyspepsia!

For ten years I had been a severe sufferer from chronic dyspepsia, which was pronounced incurable. I was completely run down, and in the summer season was not able to do anything and spent a great part of the time lying down. I could not touch meat of any kind, or any solid food whatever, as I could not digest it at all and had to live on crackers and light diet. I was very nervous, would have severe nervous spells, and could not get any natural sleep. I was so restless. I suffered all the time from chronic dysentery, which kept me weakened down. That was my condition when I determined as a last resort to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I had tried so many treatments and so many patent medicines without benefit that I had no faith in anything and had almost made up my mind not to try another thing, when Mrs. Person came to my house last April and induced me to try her Remedy. I bought 7 dozen bottles. Felt no relief whatever until I was on the fourth bottle, when I knew I was getting better. I became stronger, got so I could sleep well and there was no necessity for me to lie down in the day time. I took twenty-two bottles before I stopped. My digestion is now perfect, and I can eat meat, vegetables, and anything else I want, and as much as I want. When I commenced the Remedy I weighed 98 pounds, now I weigh 115 pounds. Dysentery perfectly cured, and it is all owing to Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. It is everything claimed for it.

The Marine Band from the New York navy yard passed through yesterday afternoon on its way to Tampa. The band played several stirring pieces at the station. Many were under the impression that it was the first regiment band from Raleigh.

The reported Spanish spy called again this morning to request an explanation of our explanation. As he was accompanied by a stick two inches in diameter the explanation is given with extreme pleasure. He gently assured us that he did not live next door "Dinnis O'Flanagan." Meantime a Cincinnati paper drummer who had called suddenly remembered that his house had all the orders it could handle. The Erin left no further references that we can print.

Flower Carnival.

A most beautiful and novel flower and fairy carnival was given last night by the school children at the Asheboro street Graded school. Bright, winsome, pretty, airy and frolicking fairies danced and flitted hither and thither across the stage as much at home as if in some grassy and flowery dell. Buzzing bees, bright colored butterflies and flowers of all kinds were present to add to the beauty of the scene and exceedingly well did all the children represent their parts.

Miss Tillie Tatum, as a rose, was chosen queen of the flowers. This entertainment was given in aid of the school library and Southside Hose company and will be repeated tonight with a slightly varied program.

The New Truck.

The fire department was very much in evidence this morning. They had out their new hook and ladder truck with all of its appliances. The boys are very proud of their truck and well may be, for it is one of the prettiest ever brought into the state. The fire laddies spent a part of the morning practicing with the new extension ladders. They scaled the front wall of the fire engine house with no trouble at all. With a little more practice the boys will be able to put a man on the top of any building in town in a very few minutes. Greensboro joins in the pleasure and pride of the boys over their handsome truck.

Eagle Reception.

Last night at their club room the members of the Eagle Hose company gave a reception to the members of the Eagle Dramatic club, from nine till twelve. They enjoyed themselves to the utmost and voted the Eagle Hose company as excellent hosts. Strawberries, cream, cake and other delicacies were served. Mrs. W. H. Rees had charge of refreshments. Numerous games were played and swiftly and pleasantly time slipped, bringing midnight only too quickly. The Greensboro orchestra furnished the music.

Pleased With the Country.

Mr. A. R. Sanborn, a prominent business man of Lynn, Mass., paid the Telegram a call this morning. Mr. Sanborn has been spending some months in the state visiting Southern Pines and other points. He also saw a good deal of Greensboro on the trip and professed himself greatly pleased with the state and surprised at the rapid progress it is making on various lines. Mr. Sanborn added that he would probably spend next winter in the state with his family.

Some New Points About Dry Goods.

We think it a great mistake to assume that the people are not competent to judge of quality; for we have found the greater portion competent far more than they are given credit for, and are more astute in judgment than sellers often imagine.

But the safest and best plan to acquire a knowledge of quality in merchandise of all kinds is to settle upon some house, the utterances of which you have found to be trustworthy, and study its merchandise and its statements thereabout.

Knowing how far our influence has reached in so short a space of time in this regard, we can point to the education we have given the people in quality. We began our new business by providing quality, making it an object lesson. We tell the truth about quality; honest words about honest facts. We shall always maintain quality, showing that good merchandise is what the people want, what they expect, what they appreciate and what they will buy.

This is the policy we have laid down for this new business, to educate the people to tell quality; to tell it themselves and to advise others; and this season when there is, possibly, a stronger desire than ever to keep the expenses of living down to the lowest minimum, we see the fruits of our zealous endeavors more than compensative, for our new business is constantly increasing along the lines of valid values and vigorous bargain selling.

ON TO THE WARS.

Maryland and New York Soldier Boys Pass Through.

The fifth regiment of Maryland volunteers passed through this morning. The regiment numbered 996 men and the special was run in three sections. The soldier boys were going to Chickamauga and were in jolly good spirits despite the heat and worry of travel. The boys wore new uniforms and were among the best looking troops that have passed here. Each company yelled at the reporter that they were the crack company of the regiment and should be given special notice, and each deserved it. A company of the 6th New York cavalry from Fort Slocum passed through to Atlanta and 62 infantry men from Port Jervis New Jersey to Chickamauga.

PUBLISHED BY ODELL HARDWARE CO.

EDITORIAL.

We have had the cool wet spell in May. We may now expect the summer season to begin shortly, and to continue without interruption.

We do not think there is any reason for dreading the warm weather. There are a great many enjoyments peculiar to the spring and summer, without which life would be exceedingly monotonous. Picnics will soon be on hand.

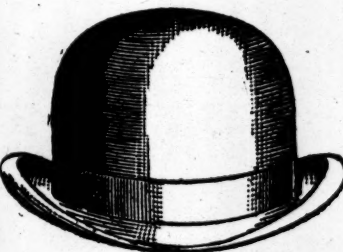

By the way, have you secured a BICYCLE? The roads will soon be in fine condition for riding. Comfort, pleasure and health demand that you take advantage of the low prices which we are now offering, and supply yourself with a wheel. The Crawford has made a record of which any wheel might well be proud. The price is exceedingly low.

If you wish an Ice Cream Freezer, a refrigerator, or any other summer specialties, do not forget that we are Headquarters.
